CASH, WHEN REQUIRED NOTES ARE HOWEVER TAKEN to accommodate the Insurer in paying his Premiums thus showing the confidence of the Company in its ability to declare Dividends that will eventually Cancel the Notes
How different this is from a Cash Company who exact all Cash under the plea that it is unsafe to grant this indulgence to a policy holder, when he is unable to pay his renewal premium
REMEMBER
That the "OLD MANHATTAN" never assumes or promises Extravagant Dividends to induce insurers to come and insure with them Their Dividends in the past have always been equal to all well managed and first class Companies, and they can offer the records of the past as an evidence of the future It never allows the character of their Companies to accumulate business THE MANHATTAN'S oldest insurers are its best advocates The business of the Company is conducted with ECONOMY!
This is an evidence of careful management and a promise of Large Dividends in future

The Troubles at Owyhee

COMPROMISE EFFECTED

From the Owyhee Avalanche March 30th

The late unhappy state of affairs on the mountain is ended The bloody war between the Golden Chariot and Ida Elmore Companies has ceased Casualties—two men killed, and one probably fatally wounded besides others slightly injured

Deputy U S Marshal, Robins, from Boise City, arrived here early yesterday morning having rode on horseback the entire distance 60 miles in six hours, bearing the following

PROCLAMATION OF GOV BALLARD

To All whom these Presents shall Come

WHEREAS, It has come to my knowledge that bodies of armed men have collected together in the county of Owyhee, Territory of Idaho that their presence and purposes are imperiling the public peace and have resulted already in the death of one or more persons, that threats of violence are openly made and creating terror in the minds of peaceable citizens,

WHEREAS, Such proceedings are in defiance of the Laws and should be immediately abandoned and

WHEREAS, It is the duty of the Executive to see that the laws are faithfully executed and the public peace preserved, and to remind good citizens that it is their duty to take no part in such lawless proceedings, but their duty to discountenance and prevent them,

Therefore, I, D W. Ballard, Governor of the Territory of Idaho, do this day issue this, my proclamation, commanding all armed parties in said county to disperse peaceably to their homes without delay, and to remind them that banding themselves together in armed parties to either commit aggression or to resist them from similar parties is in violation of law, subjects them to heavy punishment, endangers the public peace, and tarnishes the fair fame of our Territory

Citizens, the peaceable remedies of the law can redress every wrong and protect every right, and when these means are at the disposal of all as they are in this Territory, the resort to force and violence is unnecessary, unjustifiable and criminal.

To the end, therefore, that the present unhappy state of things in Owyhee county may speedily come to an end, I exhort all good citizens to refrain from all association with parties of men therein, unless called upon by the regular officers of the law, and I hereby notify the various Peace Officers of said county that it is their duty to suppress all violations, or apprehended violations, by the arrest of the parties who threaten the same, by any conduct that disturbs, or threatens to disturb the peace of the community, and that in the discharge of the duty, the whole force of the county of the Territory, if need be, may be called to their aid.

The undersigned distinctly proclaims to all, that the lawless proceedings of the parties referred to must cease, and peace and order be restored, and to that end the whole power of the Territory will be used by the Executive [L S] Given under my hand, and the seal of the Territory, affixed this 28th day of March, A D 1868.

D W. BALLARD,
Governor of Idaho.

By the Governor,
S R HOWLETT, Sec'y of the Territory.

After some preliminary arrangements, the Deputy Marshal, accompanied by Sheriff Springer, proceeded to the seat of war and read the proclamation to each of the belligerent parties, who immediately signified a willingness to give up their arms and submit to the authority of the United States The principal parties on both sides, and their attorneys, got together and by two o'clock this morning had effected a compromise, which stipulates that Wilson & Co shall hold fifty feet of the mine south from the north side of their main shaft, Grayson, Beachey & Co being allowed to retain the remaining portion of the ledge, south of that point This is a final settlement and precludes the necessity of a law suit Deeds have already been passed between the respective parties and are recorded The ground was measured and the armed men withdrawn to day

Work will continue in both mines as if nothing had happened. Although the death of the two men, John C. Holgate and Meyer Frank, is exceedingly regretted, yet everyone feels relieved by the happy termination of this unfortunate affair Most likely there will be a grand jollification to night

Letter from Union County

ORO DELL, Union county, Oregon
April 2, 1868.

EDITOR OREGONIAN

Oro Dell very respectfully asks a hearing in your columns We have no great claims upon your space and patience, only that the OREGONIAN is the more widely circulated journal in this place and this formerly has been the only precinct in the valley which has given a Union majority Now that they have changed our place for voting we may fail to have a majority, but if we do it will not be because we do not work for the cause

Philosophers say that climate and situation have a great deal to do with the constitution and political feelings of men, and cite us to the love of liberty by the Tyrolese and Switzers, and other inhabitants of mountain countries in Europe, while, in our own country, East Tennessee and West Virginia were steadfastly true to the Union cause, perhaps is the reason why Oro Dell is so intensely Republican, located as it is at the foot of the Blue mountains, overshadowed by high hills, and where one hears the never ceasing roar of waters, and snuffs the pure fresh air of the mountains! Far down in the valley, away from these influences, in the Iowa and Pike County settlements, the Democratic majorities are heavy

In answer to a call, a goodly number of our citizens assembled at the Good Templars' hall, on the evening of April 1st, and organized a Union Grant Club Hon Dan'l Olds was elected Chairman, and Major Magone, R Palmer and W. C Hull, Vice Presidents

The Committee on Resolutions reported,

1st, That we adopt the Union State platform

2d, That we are for Unconditional Surrender Grant for President

3d, That we endorse the nomination of David Logan for Congressman

The meeting was addressed by Major Magone and W C Hull Both of the gentlemen were frequently cheered, and their remarks were to the point and very eloquent

The club list received numerous signers and we hope to have some signers who have not hitherto been arrayed on the side of freedom and the Union

The exercises of the evening were interspersed by enlivening music, by the Oro Dell Glee Club, and "Let's give three rousing cheers for the Union" was sung with spirit, as if the men liked the idea of this Union and were willing to work for it and if necessary fight for it It was moved and carried that the OREGONIAN and Blue Mountain Times be requested to publish an account of the evening's proceedings, after which the meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers for Logan, our next Congressman

Wherever the above named gentleman goes he will not speak to a more sympathetic, enthusiastic audience nor meet with a warmer or more cordial welcome than at ORO DELL

The words of Lincoln "I have the most solemn oath registered in Heaven to protect, preserve and defend this Government" are painted above the chair of the Speaker of the New York House of Representatives, having been placed there shortly after his assassination Their appearance excited the ire or offended the sensibilities of a Democratic member, who offered a resolution for their removal To the credit of his political friends in that body, the resolution was last week voted down, two thirds of them voting against it but what must we think of the third who voted for it?

A farmer wrote as follows to a distinguished scientific agriculturist to whom he felt under obligations for introducing a variety of swine "Respected Sir I went yesterday to the cattle show I found several pigs of your species There was a great variety of hogs, and I was astonished not seeing you there"

The Demidoff collection of pictures, forty four in number, was recently sold in Paris for 326,000 francs, or about $90,000 currency.

SOMETHING NEW Won't our Democratic contemporaries try to stick a new string on their lyrical instruments that is, if they are harps of more than half a dozen strings? Really tiresome Do favor us with a change! "San Domingo," "Negro Supremacy," and the few old variations of wool-and-shin-bone air have been worn to tatters. General Edwards as a new hand at the political banjo might reasonably be expected to favor us with something in the way of novelty but by the sacred memory of Jefferson, and the ghost of '98, he is the dreariest and most prolix minstrel of the troupe His whole fund of drowsing, sleepy old time tunes is just being ground out over and over again, week after week Beriah Brown was absolutely vivacious in comparison with the military logician, and even the elephantine wit of the Alta is feathery lightness to his drowsy twaddle.—S. F. Chronicle

The Congressional Directory contains this paragraph, "John Morrissey, New York, born in Tipperary county, Ireland, Feb 13, 1831 came to this country in 1833, worked as a moulder; was elected to the Fortieth Congress as a Democrat receiving 9,169 votes against 6,508 votes for Taylor, independent Democrat, and 2 293 votes for Elliot, Republican " An exchange suggests that there is an item or two in John's life (we may suppose through inadvertence) omitted—belonging to the transition period when he was being worked up from a moulder into a Member of Congress

Somebody tells the following joke on George Francis Train:

As an illustration of Train's intense patriotism, we may relate that on one occasion he sent his wife on a ninety days' voyage from Australia to New York, that the coming child might be born on American soil, as it would become a possible future President of the United States. The journey was a most troublesome one, and the lady came near being shipwrecked, but at last reached this country in safety The child was born—and was a girl! This might be called an instance of labor in vain!

DEMOCRATIC RETRENCHMENT — The Oregon Herald is continually prating about retrenchment and official peculation by Republican officials. To show with what a poor grace such a charge comes from that source, it is only necessary to state that the Democratic Council of Portland pays the Herald its own price for city printing, and refuses even to consider the bids of other parties who are willing to do the work cheaper. The tax payers of Portland are thereby swindled out of a considerable amount of money yearly.—Unionist.

What they Would Do with the Negro

In his speech at this place Mr Logan remarked that Congress and the Union party had adopted the best measures they could devise for the government and protection of the colored population of the rebel States and demanded to know of Mr Smith what measures he and his party proposed for the same purpose The Democrats found fault with all that the Union party had done in relation to the blacks now what did these fault finders themselves propose to do with them? This was a tough and even unanswerable question for Mr Smith When he came to reply he could do no better than remark that "the negro was the Republicans' elephant and it was their business to settle the question" He could propose no policy of his own but reserved to himself the invaluable right of criticising and condemning everything which his political opponents should do It was our business to settle this matter, but it was his right and duty to oppose our measures, without suggesting any policy for himself or his party Finally however, he remarked that he would leave the negro to the people of the South They could manage him There was no danger that they would deal unjustly with him. They were his best friends They would secure him in his life liberty and property and give him all the privileges that were necessary to his pursuit of happiness There was no necessity whatever for the Civil Rights law which was enacted by Congress All this was in Mr Smith's usual "candid" style The white rebels of the South have given abundant proof of the manner in which they would "manage" the colored population That it may be seen how "the people of the South," as Smith designates the rebel whites of that section, would deal with the blacks if the latter were abandoned wholly to their tender mercies we point to the legislation of the several rebel States respecting the freedmen, in 1865–66 Let us see what sort of treatment a humane gentleman (!) like Mr Smith would declare to be in accordance with the principles of impartial justice Let us see how it has been prepared by Southern legislation to secure the blacks in all the rights which are essential to their prosperity and happiness

In November, 1865, the Legislature of Mississippi passed a series of acts discriminating against the freedmen [illegible] to hold them in a condition of practical and perpetual servitude It was enacted that any negro who should fail to pay any tax which was levied against him should be arrested, sold to an employer and kept at labor until all demands against him including costs, should be fully paid It was enacted that no negro or mulatto should be allowed to lease any lands or tenements except in incorporated cities, in which places the corporate authorities should have control of the same It was enacted that every colored person should be engaged in some employment or other, and should have written evidence thereof, and those who did not comply with the terms of the law should be dealt with as vagrants It was enacted that if any negro should leave his employer before the expiration of his term, he should be arrested and carried back, and the officer making the arrest should receive a fee and mileage for the service the same to be deducted from the wages of the employe. It was enacted that no freedman should leave his county without written permission from the authorities, that no person of color should own fire arms, and that it was unlawful for any person to sell, give, or lend to any freedman, arms of any description. The laws of Alabama were very similar to those of Mississippi The laws of South Carolina provided that no person of color should pursue or practice the art, trade or business of an artisan, mechanic or shop keeper, or any other trade, employment or business except that of husbandry, except by procuring license for which one hundred dollars should be paid annually. No burden of this kind was imposed on white persons Other laws of South Carolina were similar to those of Mississippi and Alabama The legislation of Florida and Virginia was of a like kind General Sickles set aside some of the acts of South Carolina on the ground that the lawful industry of no class of persons should be restrained by unequal laws, that no penalties or punishments different from those to which all persons were amenable should be imposed on colored people, and that all laws should be applicable alike to all the inhabitants For like reasons, General Terry set aside some of the unjust laws of Virginia. But it became apparent that under the new system of legislation which the entire South was adopting, the condition of the blacks was growing far worse than it had been under the old system of slavery. The nation was pledged to secure these people their freedom, and it was the duty of Congress to interpose That body did interpose, and the Civil Rights Act was passed This was the origin of that measure, which has been condemned in unmeasured terms by every Copperhead and rebel The brief sketch we have given of the legislation of the South shows the condition in which the colored population would be placed if they were left wholly to the control of their old masters J S Smith says these laws are just that they afford all the security and confer all the privileges which the blacks ought to desire This illustrates the Democratic idea of justice But it is not to be expected that men who would borrow money from a negro and then refuse to pay it on the ground that the negro had no rights which he could enforce in a court of law would deem this unjust Southern legislation at all wrong or in contravention of the principles of justice.

The dispatches give accounts of rebel secret societies in the South, and the measures which the military officers have been obliged to take to counteract them The "Kuk Klux Klan" is an organized society which has been in operation for several months It is composed of rebels of malignant spirit and desperate fortunes and appears to have spread rapidly until it has effected a strong organization in every rebel State The Jacksonville Sentinel publishes a letter written from Augusta Georgia, to Senator Corbett by an officer of the army who is well known in Oregon, in which it is stated that the people there are ready to "rise as one man" in case opportunity offers and that Congress ought not to think of reducing the army, as the country needs every soldier it has got It is clear that the encouragement which Johnson has given the rebels during the last two years has brought affairs into a far worse state than at any former time.

We learn that Judge Stout in a late speech at Lafayette, said that the claim of the Union party that they put down the rebellion was false The Democratic party helped to put it down Did Stout make any speeches to Democratic audiences in 1864, urging them to active efforts to suppress the rebellion? If so, where?

SAN FRANCISCO April 8 —A shooting scrape occurred on Clay street at noon to day in which a tailor named Peterson fired five shots at B Sanguinitta One shot struck him in the neck and another in the shoulder Peterson alleges as a reason for the attack that Sanguinitta had slandered him Sanguinitta's wounds are dangerous, and it is feared they will prove fatal

A number of gentlemen met to day and organized a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals and will organize at once

The wreck of the Autocrat has been stripped of her rigging and a portion of her cargo She will probably break up to morrow

The friends of Jas J Green Senator from Marin presented him yesterday evening with a handsome gold watch and chain worth over [illegible]

BY STATE TELEGRAPH

SALEM April 8 At a meeting of the directors of the Oregon Central Railroad East side Company it was decided to break ground on the 16th inst at East Portland Grand celebration preparations are being made to make the occasion one of much interest Numerous invitations have been given and the P T Co agrees to carry passengers at half rates.

THE NUMBER THREE —When the world was created we find land water and sky sun moon and stars Noah had but three sons Jonah was three days in the whale's belly our Savior was three days in the tomb Peter denied his Savior thrice There were three patriarchs Abraham Isaac and Jacob Abraham entertained three angels Samuel was called three times Simon loved thou me? was repeated three times Daniel was thrown in a den with three lions, for praying three times a day Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego were rescued from the flames of the oven The Ten Commandments were delivered on the third day Job had three friends Saint Paul speaks of faith hope and charity, these three Those famous dreams of the baker and butler were to come to pass in three days and Elijah prostrated himself three times on the body of the dead child Samson deceived Delilah three times before she discovered the source of his strength The sacred letters of the cross are I H S so, also the Roman motto was composed of three words "In hoc Signo" There are three conditions for man the earth heaven and hell there is also the Holy Trinity In mythology there were three Oracles Cerberus with his three heads Neptune holding his three toothed staff the Oracle of Delphi cherished with veneration the tripod and the nine Muses sprang from three In nature we have male, female and offspring morning noon and night Trees group their leaves in threes there is a three leaved clover We have fish, flesh and fowl What could be done in mathematics without the aid of the triangle? Witness the power of the wedge and in logic three premises are indispensable It is a common phrase that "three is a lucky number"

FROM FORT KLAMATH —We had the pleasure yesterday (Tuesday) of meeting with Lieut Henderson of 1st U S Cavalry, just arrived from Fort Klamath He has been promoted to a 1st Lieutenancy and ordered to join another company of his regiment at Camp Harney very nearly due east of Klamath about 300 miles distant, but as the intermediate country is occupied by hostile Indians and is not passable until later in the spring he is obliged to make a long and circuitous journey around by way of the Columbia river, and will travel nearly a thousand miles to reach Camp Watson He reports that on the 14th of March, when he left Klamath, the snow lay five feet deep and it was storming severely By measurement it is found the Fort is 4,200 feet above the sea level A company of cavalry—three officers and ninety men has been stationed there Owing to the severe winter, the Indians have commenced to suffer very severely, as their provisions have given out Many of them have received permission to go to Sink river and fish Fort Klamath does not seem to possess any great attractions, and those who have been there report very few inducements for permanent settlement and occupancy —Record

SUDDEN ELEVATION —Never blame a man who has risen unexpectedly in the world for having a good opinion of himself, for he is often taken by surprise and is naturally uplifted when he finds himself a greater character than he supposed he was Such men remind one of the villages round London, which are gradually absorbed by the city and then forgetting they were once dirty little hamlets, take upon themselves airs as being a part of the metropolis

The New York World seems to have apostatized from the Democratic party It has thrown off on the wool and shin bone argument In a recent issue it says "As a race the negroes of New York, considered from a police point of view, are a better class of citizens than the lower grades of whites A negro or negress is brought before the courts occasionally for theft occasionally a black man is arraigned for outrage and very rarely for drunkenness or murder But as a class the negroes give the police comparatively little trouble This is almost the universal testimony of patrolmen sergeants, captains and superintendents" The Democratic organs of this State ought to read the World out of the party at once for these un Democratic admissions

Last year the Democratic majority in Connecticut was 990 this year it is stated at 1,571 a gain of 581 votes in a poll of nearly 100,000 The loss of the Governor by the Republicans and the trifling Democratic gain in the popular vote is much more than compensated by a Republican majority in the Legislature and the consequent gain of a United States Senator to succeed the renegade Dixon There is nothing that can give a Union man more satisfaction than to see the recreant followers of Johnson who apostatized from their party kicked out of the Senate Doolittle's turn will come next year

"J W Jasper," of the Courier, in his late notice of the confederate nominations speaks of Mr Shadwick as a gentleman with whom he has but slight personal acquaintance having met him only once and then at a Masonic hall Would Jasper be kind enough to state whether that was before or subsequent to, his expulsion by the Masonic order?

The following are the Union nominations in Yamhill county State Senator S C Adams Representatives W B Brown and Wm Burnett Sheriff Peter Gates, Clerk, — Redding, Treasurer J W Watts The ticket is a strong one and will be elected

The Copperheads don't like to have their record ventilated They deprecate any allusion to dead issues Certainly their record smells bad enough if that is what they mean

Dr J W Watts of Yamhill county will address the Union Club at Butteville on the 18th inst

Canyon Road—West Side.—In a brief conversation [illegible] with Mr. Hart, the superintendent of the [illegible] of the west side road, he informed us that [illegible] begun last Monday morning, has progressed [illegible] pass summit to about half way to the [illegible] of the city. The surveyors have pursued thus [illegible] grade of eighty feet per mile, but upon reaching [illegible] upon the line, they hope to improve [illegible]. The exact grade cannot be determined, [illegible] till the distance be ascertained. The point on [illegible] the survey begins, is four hundred feet [illegible]. The work at present is on the hill side [illegible] heavy timber and is therefore rough and [illegible] they will probably be completed between [illegible] and the summit, early next week.

Matters at Walla Walla.—The Statesman of [illegible] says: From all quarters we hear the cheering report [illegible] trade opens in a flattering manner. Our [illegible] cast off its winter's gloom and now presents [illegible] appearance. Pack trains and teams crowd [illegible], and every indication goes to make up the belief [illegible] large amount of business will be done here the [illegible]. We are pleased to learn that a company [illegible] been organized at Waitsburg for the purpose of [illegible] woolen mill, and that the necessary capital [illegible] been subscribed. Mr. S. M. Wait, one of [illegible] of the enterprise, is in San Francisco for [illegible] of arranging for the machinery, which it is [illegible] to have on the ground by the time the buildings [illegible] ready for use.

Improvement of B Street.—At the meeting of the [illegible] on the 1st inst., an ordinance was passed providing for the improvement of B street, from North Fifth [illegible] west side of block 165. This will take the [illegible] block beyond the crossing of "Tanner's" [illegible] which a bridge or culvert is to be built. The [illegible] and on one side of the centre is to [illegible] a plank roadway of eight feet in width, and sidewalks are to be laid on each side; cross-walks at the [illegible]. The work is to be completed on or [illegible] the first day of September. The bridge across [illegible] creek is a very important improvement.

Railroad Meeting.—The Record of yesterday says: [illegible] adjourned meeting of the stockholders of the [illegible] Railroad, held April 7, they adjourned to [illegible] the office of the Chief Engineer of the Company, [illegible] city of Portland, on Wednesday, April 15, at 8 [illegible] P. M. The breaking of ground and commencing [illegible] work will take place on the next day—Thursday—[illegible]. It is desirable that all persons interested [illegible] be then present." Messrs. S. G. Elliott, J. P. [illegible], Brooks and others were present at the meeting [illegible]

[illegible] Improvements.—Col. T. R. Cornelius, one of the largest farmers in Washington County, while recently in San Francisco, purchased three gang plows, a [illegible] drill, and some other agricultural implements, to be used on his farm. The Col. has nearly five hundred [illegible] of land under improvement and the old methods of [illegible] labor [illegible] altogether too slow for him. Slowly, but [illegible] our farmers are coming to adopt the labor saving [illegible] now so generally in use in the Eastern States [illegible] one of the best auguries of our future prosperity and wealth.

[illegible] Products.—The arrival of Oregon products [illegible] were as follows: Per Fannie [illegible] from Oregon City, 1,500 qr sks, 500 hf sks, and 700 gunnies flour—[illegible] equal to 1,500 qr sks—and 1,000 bags wheat. Per steamer [illegible], 1,061 qr sks flour, 8 hlf bbls lard, 51 [illegible] hogs, and 47 boxes apples. Per steamer Alert, [illegible] bags wheat, 320 sks feed, 175 qr sks flour, 12 hlf bbls [illegible] dried fruit, 10 cases mdse, 2 wagons, and 2 bales woolen goods.

Prospecting Quartz Mill for Idaho.—Capt. Miller, a gentleman who has had much experience in quartz crushing, arrived by the late steamer, with a new and improved quartz mill, put up at San Francisco, which he proposes to take to Rocky Bar, Idaho, for the purposes of a prospecting mill. The machinery goes up the river to day. On his way to this coast recently, Capt. Miller passed through Montana and Idaho, and selected the region of Rocky Bar, for his future operations.

Freight Rates from Umatilla.—The following are the freight rates from Umatilla to various points beyond, as furnished by Messrs. John R. Foster & Co.: To Owyhee, 10c ℔; Idaho City, 9c; Boise City, 7c; Silvats, 6c; Baker City, 4½c; Union town 3½c; La Grande, 3c. The above rates payable in coin or gold bars. There was so much poor dust taken last year that freighters are unwilling to load now for dust at any price.

Athletics.—The following is a list of the officers of Athletic B. B. Club, elected yesterday for the ensuing year: W. Masters, President, Geo. Ainsworth, Vice President, R. Selling, Secretary, Geo. Rosseau, Treasurer, E. Wilcox, M. B. Anderson and H. Henderson, Directors, P. D. Giltner, Captain 1st Nine; L. Masters, Captain 2d Nine, Geo. Ainsworth, Scorer.

Mr. Applegate's Lecture.—During yesterday, the lecture of Mr. Applegate of the evening before, on "The Koreish—Mahomet and Al Koran, was the subject of more general remark than any lecture delivered in this city for many years, and we observed that everybody spoke highly of it. Mr. Applegate certainly struck the popular chord in Portland.

County Court—Marquam, Judge.—In the County Court, yesterday, the following cases were disposed of:

R. Hendri vs. E. Thomas; action on account for goods, judgment against defendant in the sum of $130.

Wm Strong vs. M. Mason and C. F. Royal; action on promissory note; judgment against Royal for $57 30.

Sheriff's Sale of Furniture.—There are posters all about the city, announcing the sale on Saturday, the 13th inst., of the furniture of the New Columbian hotel. The sale is upon execution. There is a very large amount of it, and of considerable variety.

Going to the States.—An unusually large number of people are in the city who intend taking the steamer for San Francisco, and thence to the States. Among the number we notice several from Salem, Yamhill county and other places up the valley.

To Sail.—The steamship John L. Stephens will sail for San Francisco on Friday morning at 5 o'clock. Passengers are requested to get their baggage on board this evening, and if they choose may go on board themselves to-night.

A Top Shop Robbed.—The shop of a top manufacturer was broken into, during Tuesday night and robbed of a number of boy's spinning tops which were left lying on his work-bench. The entrance was effected by breaking a pane of glass.

Good Digging.—Several boys were yesterday prospecting the ruins of the scene of the late fire, for treasure. We heard it stated that they found several pieces of money, a gold chain and some other articles of lesser value.

Not Much of a Traveler.—Mr. John Fleming of Oregon City, one of the pioneers of Oregon, visited this city yesterday for the first time, since 1856. There are few men who can show such a stay-at-home record as that.

Young Cattle.—Just before dark last evening a large band of young cattle were brought across the river and driven to the O. S. N. Co.'s dock, to be shipped up the Columbia river, this morning.

Speech To-Night at the Court House.—Gen. E. L. Applegate will speak this evening, at the court house, on the political issues of the day, beginning at half past seven o'clock.

Speaking at Oswego.—A. C. Gibbs and J. H. Reed will address the citizens of Oswego on Saturday, the 11th inst., at 1 o'clock P. M. on the political issues of the day.

Knees.—The steamer Okanagon brought up yesterday a considerable number of sawed fir knees, to be used as we suppose by the O. S. N. Co. in repairs of boats.

Concert Postponed.—In consequence of the political meeting at the Court House, this evening, Mrs. Wood's concert has been postponed till Friday evening.

Soda.—Messrs. Bigley & Co. have again commenced the manufacture of soda at their works in North Portland, on a large scale, to accommodate the demand for cooling drinks. Mr. John Baldwin who is the "Co." of the firm, may be seen at almost any hour of the day, on their soda wagon, driving about and delivering the "beverages."

Tailors Wanted.—Six A 1 Coat, Pants, and Vest Makers can find ready employment by calling on W. King, Superintendent of the tailoring department, at Barman Bros., corner Front and Morrison streets.

P. S.—None but the very best of workmen need apply, as the highest prices are paid.

Ladies!—Please call in to-day and examine the new stock of goods just received at Mrs. Levy's, consisting of the finest spring styles of dress goods, all the latest and most fashionable styles of trimmings, &c.

The First Hebrew Benevolent Society will hold their Annual Meeting for Election of Officers Sunday, April 12th, at half past one o'clock P. M. at the Turn Verein Hall. Members are particularly requested to attend.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.

Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water; Invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels; Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.

REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element, no fiery excitant; but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering, though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

The Story of a Day

A soldier slept as the morning uprolled
On the white tents pitched on the pleasant plain
The buy shot's gleam was the gleam of gold,
Where the sunlight poured on the height and the wold
And the field of yellow grain

Then the soldier arose when his rest was done
And he merrily sung of his young girl
He sharpened his sword in the glistening sun
And he smiled as he thought of the laurels won
That yet on his brow would be

The couriers rode when the noontide came,
And told of the foe in lines advancing fast
And the camp was filled with a wide acclaim
And the soldier's heart was kindled with flame
As the hurrying squadron passed

But the glen full soon was the place of blood
With the hissing of shot and the clang of steel
And many lay dead and stained the sod,
Though the soldier's comrades in valor stood
Till they made the foemen reel

When the night came down the corses were strewn
And the soft dews fell on the face of the dead
But the soldier's song had changed to a moan
As pale and faint where the sad moon shone
He lay with his bleeding head

'Tis morning again on the tents and spears,
But the soldier's voice is forever still
There's a form that's missed from the cavaliers
There's a sweet face blurred with its bitter tears
There's a nameless grave on the hill
—Col. William S. Hawkins

What Ails all the Women

Our neighbors over the water judging from an article in one of their leading papers seem to be greatly exercised at present on the "Woman Question." The old model English woman who sneezed exactly at the same hour her grandmother did, and sat down and rose up and went out, and came in whenever her husband bade her—and made no objection at the same time to any irregularity either in his hours or habits—it seems has disappeared Instead, we have that horror—the English female physician, the English female would be voter, in short the English female who asserts her right to individuality in action and opinion, equally with her husband

John Bull sets down his mug of beer, and says that the thing is monstrous He says that he no longer can lounge off by himself, as in bachelor days, although he is married—and therefore a more important—member of society He says that his wife positively expects him to act as though he were married. He says that he is not allowed, as formerly, to spend every evening with his bachelor cronies—Tom, Dick or Harry He says that when he tells her decidedly that he won't do this, or that that she pays no more attention to his refusal than as if he hadn't made it but quietly returns to the same point of disputation the next day, and every day and every month, and all through the year with a terrible and feline pertinacity He says that it is like the slow dropping of water on some sensitive part of the human; he says he don't like it and don't know what to do about it He says, besides, that marriage is not at all favorable to largeness of mind, or breadth of view, which is very obvious in his own case, in the remarks above quoted! He says that all she says and does "has the stamp of Lilliput," and that should she ever have the right of suffrage, she would barter away her vote for a gown. He says justice is a quality unknown to woman, which is very true, and that is just what she is contending for He says, to make a long matter short, that when he married he expected to live just exactly the same life that he did before, and that he finds he can't and, moreover he says with a sweeping wave of his John Bull hand, that no husband was ever made more large hearted, or tolerant or in any way benefitted by marriage.

Now, if a man will marry, with such absurd ideas of what marriage ought to be, and if he will marry a fool, I advise him not to go whining 'round the world about it, he deserves the consequences But let him not insist that all women are fools, because he got on his knees to obtain one. I will always maintain that there are twenty bad husbands to one bad wife, and that one would seldom continue bad if her husband were just and kind to her. As to marriage narrowing a man's mind, that which never had any breadth cannot be narrowed And history abundantly shows how wise in counsel, how judicious in influence, how helpful in sympathy and co operation have been many such wives.

Now it is often said that a wife, to a literary man is only a hindrance Provided she is not a fool, it would pay him, in my opinion to give a regular salary—if he could not obtain it otherwise—to give him the feminine side of every great question of the day, as it comes up—which by the way, she does unconsciously, and which has any thing but a "narrowing" effect either on his mind or his writings, whether he acknowledges it or not

It is no small thing to be able to toss her a book and say, "I want to know what is in that book, but I haven't the time to read it, run it over will you, and tell me what you think of it?"—or to get from her the consideration of newspapers, magazines and pamphlets, in the same way, or translations; or to have her assistance in answering letters, without prompting, when pressed for time, to ask her where such a passage may be found in certain authors, which have escaped his memory. In contact with such a woman narrowing?—There are many thousands of such

It is horrible for a man of sense to be yoked to a fool, and vice versa. [illegible] But the whole [illegible] matter is just this, men [illegible] what they are There are no [illegible] Before this have [illegible] to be [illegible] the majority of them, by total disregard of [illegible] laws, [illegible] them selves for [illegible] and appreciation of pure, [illegible] women. It is as if a baby should be fed from birth with highly spiced [illegible] at maturity, be expected to have [illegible] for [illegible] food. The fault is not in [illegible] men, who bring to the [illegible] mony, [illegible] minds and dilapidated bodies

FANNY FERN.

YOUR FIRST SWEETHEART —You can never forget her. She was so very young, and innocent, and pretty She had such a way of looking at you over her hymn book in church. She alone, of all the world, did not think you a boy of eighteen, but wondered at your size and learning, and your faint foreshadowing of a moustache, and beheld you every inch a man When at those stupid evening parties, where boys who should be in the nursery, and girls who have eaten suppers of bread and milk, and gone to sleep hours before, waltzed and flirted, and made themselves ill over oysters and champagne you were favored with a glance of her eye or a whisper from her lip you ascended to the seventh heaven immediately When once upon a certain summer eve she polked with a certain dragoon clerk, and never even looked at you, how miserable you were It is funny to think of now, but it was not funny then, for you were awfully in earnest

Once at a pic-nic, she wore a white dress and had roses twined in her black hair and she looked so like a bride that you fairly trembled, sometimes you thought in just such [illegible] with just such blossoms in her hair, she might stand beside the altar and you, most blessed of all mortals, might place a golden ring upon her finger, and when you were left alone with her for a moment, some of your thoughts would form themselves into words, and though she blushed and ran away and would not let you kiss her she did not seem angry And then you were somehow parted for a little while, and when you met again she was walking with a gentleman a large well whiskered man, of about twenty eight or thirty, and had neither word nor smile for you. And some ill-natured gossip informed you shortly after that she was "engaged" to the tall gentleman with the black whiskers, and that "it was a splendid match It was terrible news to you then, and sent you off to some great city far from your native place where, after a good deal of youthful grief and many resolutions to die and haunt her, you recovered your equanimity, and began to make money and to call love stuff and nonsense

You have a rich wife, of your own now and grown up children—aye even two or three toddling grandchildren, about your hearth your hair is grey and you lock your heart up in the fire proof safe at your counting house, when you go home at night And you thought that you had forgotten that episode of your nineteenth year, until the other day when you read of her death in the papers You know she was a stout lady who wore glasses, and had daughters older than she was in that olden time but your heart went back and you saw her smiling and blushing with her golden hair about her face, and yourself a boy again, dreaming of wedding robes and rings, and you laid your grey old head upon your office desk and wept for the memory of your first sweetheart

The Richmond (Va.) Enquirer and Examiner is credited with saying this very neat thing, "We have received from Mr. George Francis Train presently in Ireland [illegible] a stunning [illegible] a copy of the Cork Herald containing an account of his arrest and commitment to jail by the British government—which we are very glad to see."

An Old Reason for Johnson's Hatred of Grant

The Jersey City Times relates the following narrative of events happening during Johnson's circle swinging tour The finale lets us into the possession of one of the President's first reasons for not liking Grant

General Grant charges that President Johnson has tried to involve him in acts of resistance to the law for which he (Mr Johnson) hesitated to assume the responsibility Whether this is so or not, people will judge for themselves but this is certain that the President has all along tried to make use of General Grant's popularity with the people in his struggle with Congress and to convey the impression that General Grant was on his side The means by which Mr Johnson has thus sought to compromise General Grant before the country have not always been the most honorable, and frequently have been in direct violation of the truth

As bearing on this point the writer will state a fact which came under his personal cognizance during the summer of 1866 The writer of this was one of the party which accompanied the President on his trip to the West to inaugurate the Douglas monument and visit the tomb of Lincoln, the so called "swinging round the circle home to Washington After leaving Chicago Mr John Hogan, member of Congress from St Louis who strongly supported the secession movement in 1860-1, and who only escaped disfranchisement as a rebel because Missouri did not join the rebels as he wished her to do, made himself very conspicuous during the journey through Illinois and Indiana by introducing the Presidential party to the crowd assembled at every little wayside station Hogan used to do it as follows The President would step out on the platform behind the car and being immediately saluted with loud cries of "Grant!" "Grant! Farragut!" Hogan would step forth, hat in hand, saying

My friends, allow me to introduce to you, the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, who stands up for the flag and Union of 36 and not 25 stars and States Three cheers for President Johnson!" and this request being seldom responded to, except by new cries for Grant and Farragut John would wave his hat and give the required cheers himself Grant and Farragut at last appearing, John would take it upon himself to introduce them with the following remarks "You see, my friends, both General Grant and our noble Farragut are with the President thereby involving, if not actually saying that Grant and Farragut were with the President politically as well as bodily Grant endured this as well as he could for some time (three days in fact though with many indications of his disapprobation of the performance of which neither the President nor Hogan took any notice though Grant's feelings in the matter must have been as evident to them as it was to anybody else At Indianapolis Grant left the party, which he rejoined at Cincinnati, and at the first stoppage after leaving Cincinnati Hogan acted as master of ceremonies in his usual style. In a very few minutes however, he left the President's car with a very crest fallen countenance, seated himself in a corner of the preceding car and hardly spoke again during the whole journey and certainly never offered to introduce anybody The explanation was this Grant had told the President that he didn't like it, saying "We are passing through a loyal State now, whose people sent two hundred thousand of her sons to the war, and I am unwilling that those people should be insulted by my being paraded before them in company with a secessionist like John Hogan" That was enough, the President gave John his quietus and Grant was no more annoyed by such underhanded attempts to compromise him before the people as a supporter of the President's policy

ON A 'TARE '—This is related of a father living near Cincinnati who was one evening teaching his little boy to recite his Sunday School lesson It was from the fourteenth chapter of Matthew, wherein he related the parable of a malicious individual who went about sowing tares What is a tare? asked the anxious parent "Tell me my son, what a tare is?" "You had em Johnny what do you mean?" asked the astonished parent, opening his eyes rather wide Last week, when you didn't come home for three days said Johnny, 'I heard mother tell aunt Susan that you were on a tare ' The Sunday School lesson was brought to an abrupt close and Johnny was sent to bed

The New York Times, which does not seem to like anything or anybody over much, not even Johnson and certainly not Congress, says of McClellan's qualifications for the English mission "In the present state of our foreign relations a man of ability, learning and experience, is especially required in England and Gen McClellan has not one of these qualifications. His nomination would be a very great mistake, his appointment would be a much greater one

Mr H W SHIPLEY Sir In reply to your inquiry as to how I like you Pacific Turbine Wheel, I have to say that I have [illegible] one over shot and three Leffel wheels [illegible] When I [illegible] 15 inch wheel for the 15 inch Leffel wheel [illegible] using 62 ft of water [illegible] At your request [illegible] better power than yours which used 12 cubic feet more water per minute After a number of [illegible] placed your wheel and am still using it with the most satisfactory results I have subjected it to some severe tests For instance [illegible] the circular saw in a log which required 16 feet of [illegible] planer with a 5 inch knife, [illegible] without in the least slacking the speed After these [illegible] tests I [illegible] satisfied that our wheel with gates one eighth [illegible] power as the Leffel with gates one-third open At all gate your wheel gives double the power of the Leffel at half gate At full gate the power of yours exceeds that of the Leffel by from ten to twelve per cent At quarter gate the Leffel holds no comparison with yours at quarter gate

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system Look at their pallid, [illegible] and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of [illegible] or the enjoyment of life In this horrid stream thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let guardians then be attentive to those who are suffering from any of these horrible life-destroying maladies [illegible] they are cured for an [illegible] before it be too late, [illegible] them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to [illegible] who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the [illegible] pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing [illegible] in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians [illegible] Europe and other places Be therefore careful and strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of charlatans

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pret[illegible] who, with bogus swag-to certificates, dupe the [illegible] Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and [illegible] lazy to work at their trades Some are tinsmiths, [illegible] makers newspaper carriers, intelligence office [illegible] etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, [illegible] will not find their Medical Institutes in it but [illegible] find their former occupations in it Look at the [illegible] tery for 1862 and 1863, The only way to [illegible] tion is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets; for as advert[illegible] clans in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know [illegible] what they are Dr Gibbon does not deceive [illegible] by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended [illegible] letters, etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons [illegible] who may call at his office of his ability to treat dis[illegible] that he proposes to cure
